Alexander was brought back to the jail here by Co. D. at 6 a. m. Tuesday. He is apparently indifferent as to his fate, saying he had as soon be hanged now as a month herea.

LAWHERN SUSPECTED

Persists in Communicating With Mrs. Sapp and Is Ordered to Vacate.

Hawesville, Ky., Aug. 20.—There has been more trouble over the Lawhern-Sapp sensation. On Saturday Rev. Mr. Lawhern, the pastor of the M. E. church who is now away from here under suspension because of the charge against him of undue intimacy with the wife of Mr. Joe Sapp, came to town and in the evening he passed down the street near the Sapp residence. Mr. and Mrs. Sapp are now living together, and apparently, contentedly. In a short time after the suspended minister passed, Sapp got his pistol and drew it on the preacher and warned him to keep away from that part of town. It is said here that Lawhern attempted to communicate with Mrs. Sapp, but just how it is not generally known.

Mr. Sapp would not talk about the matter and Rev. Mr. Lawhern left on the next train for Owensboro.

Union Services.

Union Services.

Union services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday night. Dr. J. E. Fogartie will preach. There is some talk of continuing the union services through the month of September as it is probably the most unfavorable month of the summer. The question will be settled by Sunday night.

Dear Sir.—

It gives me pleasure to acknowledge receipt of statement of optional settlement on 20-Payment Life Policy, No. 223,593, for $1,500.00; issued at age 35, with premium of $52.30, taken out with you Apr. 29, '86. After having been insured for 20 years, I am offered a paid up policy for $1,500 and a cash dividend of $406.88, or the total value may be withdrawn in cash—$1,215.55, (which is more than I have paid in in the 20 years) or a fully paid up policy payable at my death for $2,219.00.

The cash settlement of $1,215.55 is equal to Term Insurance at $12.57 per $1,000 and an investment of the balance of premiums with 55 per creditable one for the New York Life, and This showing is certainly a creditable one for the New York Life, and This showing is certainly a my application for $1,000 on the Ordinary Life plan.

MEXICAN PEARLS IN DEMAND

ems from the Gulf of California Are Eagerly Sought For in World's Markets.

Jewelers are learning to realide the value of the Mexican pearl and the season's work in pearl fishing is proving very remunerative. Adrian Cornejo, a promiment pearl fisher of lower California, says that the pearl fishers all along the coast of the gulf are doing an excellent business this year. In this part of Mexico there is more variety in the color of the pearls found than in any other part of the world. The colors include black, gray, red, bluish-green and yellow. Mexican pearls are rapidly gaining a good reputation in the markets of the world. In Paris, which is the center of, the pearl trade, there are no pearls more in favor
than those from Mexico.

There is now about as much prospecting in the Gulf

than those from Mexico.

There is now about as much prospecting for pearls in the Gulf of California as there is hunting for mines throughout the interior of Mexico, and the entire gulf coast is closely inspected by pearl fishers or prospectors. The best pearls are to be found in the bottom of the pearl beds. For this season old beds that were some time ago supposed to have been worked out have lately been raked over, sometimes with excellent results. One of the finest gray pearls ever found was disgray pearls ever found was dis-

Australia has taken steps to protect her pearl fisheries for British seekers. The report on British New Guinea, just published by the commonwealth of Australia, contains an amendment to the law relating to pearl shell and "beche de mer" fisheries, under which no ship or boat is to be licensed to fish for pearls of beche de mer unless owned by natural born British subjects, naturalized subjects, denizens of British New Guinea or of Australia, and bodies corporate" established under the laws of some parts of the British dominions. This is said to be an act of retaliation in view of the German regulations regarding Samoa.

Iowa Pastor Yields to Agitation Against Old Custom.

Every communicant of the Mason City, Iowa, First Methodist Episco-pal church who desires to share in communion services next Sunday is requested by Dr. W. W. Charlton, the pastor, to bring a spoon.

The pastor's innovation is a result of an agitation in lowa churches against the common use of the communion cup, it being held that the old custom is a means of spreading diseases.

TOO MUCH EVEN FOR GOAT

Animal's by No Means Delicate Stom ach Unable to Digest Bucket Full of Lye

Billy Butts, pet of the battleship West Virginia, the menagerie ship of the north Atlantic squadron, went on the sick list
the other day, says the New York Herald. He is ordered on a diet of predigested breakfast foods, and for a goat that has never balked on anything from a paper of pins to a grand piano when he wall be been been been been distanced by miliation.

Bill is a medium-sized goat.
He joined the West Virginia at St. Thomas in the West Indies last winter. He wandered on the gun deck when the men were scrubbing down, and when he saw a bucket of lye it looked so good to him that he just had to drink it. He gave one plaintive bleat for help and then tried to butt an eight-inch gun into Wallabout bay.
"Stumpy'McGill, veterinary for the ship's menagerie, was summoned and Billy tried to swallow all the antidotes that could moned and Billy tried to swall-low all the antidotes that could be found, but the lye had seared his throat and not even cigarette stumps, to which he has always been partial, seemed to satisfy him. When a liberty party went ashore the men promised to bring aboard some old circus posters to see if they would taste good to Billy. Billy

Billy is no common goat, and every man on the ship, from Bear Admiral W. H. Brownson to the youngest apprentice, is fond of him. The only thing yet found that the would not try to eat is a handsome blanket made especial. ly for him, which he wears ever; handsome blanket made especialj for him, which he wears every Sunday morning when he takes his place with the men for general inspection.

There is just one living thing on board the West Virginia that Billy is afraid of, and that is a brown Leghorn rooster, which one of the crew picked up at St.
Thomas in a way that is not approved by the navy regulations.
When the rooster starts for Billy the goat runs to one of the men for protection and acts as if he did not believe roosters were fair fighters.
Besides the goat and rooster the West Virginia has three parrots, which are taking a course in any English; three dogs, five cats and two monkeys. The monkeys stay down in the engine room, but the rest of the menag-room, but the rest of the me erie has the liberty of the ship.

Another Germ Fiend.

"Do you have your nails manicured?" asked the doctor.
"Don't do it. Those little manicurists never sterilize their instruments. Easiest thing I know to get blood disease in that way.

I never have a barbr shave me, either. Same dread of blood dis-ease, Did you ever hear of a barber who sterilized his razors? Well, I guess not."
"It would be a cold day for barbers and manieurists if every-body was like you," his compan-ion remarked, tranquilly, as he walked into the barber shop.

Only a Suspicion.

"How many lauguages can your man talk?"

"Ever so many. I suspect him of proposing to me in two or three of them, just to tantalize me."
